Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

E. The term “communication” shall mean a transmittal of information by any means.

F. The term “identify” shall have the following meaning when used in the following contexts:

- i. When used in connection with a natural person, please state his or her: (i) full name; (ii) present or last known address (including street name and number, city and state); (iii) present or last known business address; (iv) present position, business affiliation, and job description and, if unknown, so state and set forth the corresponding last known such information; and (v) position, business affiliation, and job description at the time in question, with respect to the Interrogatory or other request involved.
- ii. When used in connection with a corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, firm, or other business enterprise or legal entity, please state in the answer in each instance (i) the full name and address and (ii) the identity of all persons who acted or were authorized to act on its behalf in connection with the matter referred to.
- iii. When used in connection with a Document that has been produced in response to Debtor’s accompanying Document request, state the Document’s bates number or range of bates numbers. When used in connection with a Document that has not been produced in response to Debtor’s accompanying Document request, please state in the answer in each instance: (i) whether or not such Document is known to be in existence at the time of the answer; (ii) the date of the Document; (iii) the type of Document (e.g. letter, memorandum, computer printout, estimate, etc.); (iv) the identity of the author(s), addressee(s), and any other person to whom the Document was shown or distributed; (v) any filing or identifying number; and (vi) the present or last known location and/or custodian thereof. If any requested Document was, but is no longer in your possession or subject to your control, please identify the Document, state what disposition was made of it, and identify each person who has had possession or control of the Document.

- iv. When used in connection with a communication that has been produced in response to Debtor's accompanying Document request, state the communication's bates number or range of bates numbers. When used in connection with a communication that has not been produced in response to Debtor's accompanying Document request, state in the answer in each instance: (i) the identity of each person communicating; (ii) the identity of the recipient(s) and intended recipient(s) of the communications; (iii) the identity of each person presently or otherwise aware of the substance of the communication; (iv) the date and the place where the communication was made; and (v) the identity of any Document that embodies, includes, reflects, concerns, relates to, or is based upon the communication.

G. The terms "related to," "relate to," "relating to," "pertaining to" and "refer to" shall mean having any relationship or connection to, concerning, being connected to, commenting on, responding to, containing, constituting, showing, memorializing, describing, analyzing, reflecting, pertaining to, compromising, identifying, discussing, evidencing, or otherwise establishing a reasonable, logical, or causal connection.

H. The term "thing" has the meaning prescribed in Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and includes every type of physical specimen or tangible item other than a document.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. These requests for the production of documents and things require Examinee to produce all responsive documents and things in its possession, custody, or control, without regard to the physical location of such documents and things. Examinee has the duty to search for responsive documents and things in all media sources in its possession, custody, or control where paper or electronic files are kept or stored, including floppy disks, hard drives on or for personal computers, computer servers, mainframe storage tapes or disks, archive facilities and backup facilities. Examinee has the duty to ensure that no response documents or things are destroyed, deleted, or otherwise disposed of.

2. If any responsive documents or parts of document have been destroyed, deleted, or otherwise disposed of, a list shall be provided setting forth as to each such document the following information to the extent known: (i) the type of document; (ii) the general subject matter of the document; (iii) the date of the document; (iv) the author of the document; (v) the recipients of the document; (vi) the date on which the document was destroyed, deleted, or otherwise disposed of; (vii) the person or program that destroyed, deleted, or otherwise disposed of the document; and (viii) the reason that the document was destroyed, deleted or otherwise disposed of.

3. If a claim of privilege is asserted with respect to any of the requests herein, and any responsive documents or portions of responsive documents are withheld on such basis, Examinee's written objection to such request shall identify the nature of the privilege being claimed and, if the privilege is being asserted in connection with a claim or defense governed by state law, the state's privilege rule being invoked, and Examinee shall provide, at the time of the response to this Request, a list setting forth as to each document or portion of document withheld, the following information: (i) the type of document; (ii) the general subject matter of the document; (iii) the date of the document; (iv) the author of the document; (v) the recipients of the document; (vi) where not apparent, the relationship of the author of the document to the recipients of the document; and (vii) the privilege claimed as to the document.

DOCUMENTS REQUESTED

Request No. 1: All documents, including, but not limited to, updated detailed claims report, copies of claims and supporting documentation, concerning health benefit claims submitted for the Health Plan which were not paid in 2016.

Request No. 2: All communications between You and any of the Debtor's former employees concerning unpaid health benefit claims in 2016.

Request No. 3: All documents related to any amounts owed to You by the Debtor.

Request No. 4: All documents related to the Health Plan's coverage and pricing, including, but not limited to, executed Health Plan documents and related agreements between You and the Debtor.
